RULES FOR JUDGING

1. All judges shall follow the rules and terms for judging as set forth in The Garden Club of Virginia Flower Shows Handbook (Revised 2001) and The American Daffodil Society's Handbook for Growing, Exhibiting, and Judging Daffodils 2000 edition.
2. The Show Committee reserves the right to subdivide classes by cultivar or color code when there are three or more worthy exhibits of the same cultivar or color code and if there are a sufficient number of worthy exhibits left in the class. Species may be subdivided by their botanical sections.
3. The decisions of the judges are final. If an error is discovered in an exhibit after completion of judging, any award placed thereon (ADS, Special Award or Ribbons) shall be forfeited by the exhibitor. If an error is discovered BEFORE the judging is completed, the class MUST be rejudged.
4. Horticulture judges and student horticulture judges may not exhibit in a class where they are assigned to judge. Artistic judges and student artistic judges may exhibit in horticulture classes, but may not enter in artistic classes.

5. In Horticulture only one first, one second and one third award may be given in each class. Honorable Mention awards may also be given if merited but only if first, second and third-place ribbons have been awarded.
6. First, second, third or honorable mention awards may be withheld if, in their opinion, the judges feel that the exhibit is not worthy. However, if a blue ribbon has been awarded in a class eligible for an ADS ribbon, the ribbon may not be withheld.
7. The Best Bloom and Best Artistic Arrangement are chosen only from Blue Ribbon Winners, with the exception of an outstanding horticulture specimen exhibited in a nonblue ribbon, multi-stem class.
8. When selecting the Best Bloom, all horticultural judges must be present. When selecting Best Artistic Arrangement, all artistic judges must be present. Selection is made by ballot. In case of a tie, point scoring is required.
9. Judging begins on Wednesday, April 4, at 10:30 a.m.

RULES FOR HORTICULTURE EXHIBITORS

1. All classes are open to all daffodil growers except where specified.
2. Entries may be made from 3-9 p.m., Tuesday, April 3, 2007, and from 7-10 a.m. on Wednesday, April 4, 2007. All entries must remain in place until Thursday, April 5, 2007, at 1:00 p.m.
3. Judging will begin at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, April 4, at which time the show area will be cleared of all persons except show officials, judges and clerks until the show opens to the public. No exhibits accepted after 10:00 a.m.
4. Horticulture judges may not enter any class that they have been assigned to judge.
5. Exhibitors are asked to register upon arrival at the Show. All entry tags and labels will be provided.
6. Information on an entry tag, including the exhibitor's number, which could compromise anonymity, must be concealed. Name labels or rubber stamp encouraged.
7. The exhibitor must have grown all standard blooms in the open. Miniatures may have been grown in protected areas.
8. There may be only one exhibit in each class from any one exhibitor except in Sections C, G, H, J, K and L and Division 11.

9. All cut daffodil specimens will be shown without daffodil foliage. Boxwood will be provided for staging blooms. All collections of five or more stems must be exhibited in separate containers. Containers will be provided for all horticultural entries and will be clearly marked in the staging area.
10. The Garden Club of Virginia Club Collections must be entered in the name of the club.
11. Each stem in an exhibit receiving an ADS Award must score 90 or more by the ADS scale of points.
12. Only one first, one second and one third award will be given in each class. Honorable mention awards may also be given, but only if all higher awards are given. If a blue ribbon has been awarded in a class eligible for an ADS ribbon, the ADS award may not be withheld.
13. First, second, third and honorable mention awards may be withheld by the judges if, in their opinion, the exhibit is not worthy.
14. The decision of the judges is final. If an error is discovered in an exhibit after completion of judging, any award placed thereon (ADS, Special or Ribbon) shall be forfeited by the exhibitor. If an error is discovered BEFORE the judging is completed, the class MUST be rejudged.

For questions concerning the horticulture schedule, call Leeny Glass at 540-786-7049 or send an e-mail to leenyg@adelphia.net

LABELING

15. Exhibitors are responsible for proper name or number, division and color code where required. Color coding is recommended, but is not required, except in Section A, Class 3 and 4, and Section B, Class 19. The Royal Horticulture Society System of classification will be used. The authority is the Daffodils to Show and Grow (latest printing) and the ADS Daffodil Data Bank, which will be available for reference. Entries that are incorrectly named will not be judged.
16. The originator's name MUST appear on the label for each stem in the American-bred classes, except for seedlings shown by the originator.
17. No label may be changed except by the Show Chairman or Classification Chairman in the case of placement error. No bloom may be altered, added, substituted or removed after the judging has begun or after an award has been placed.

MINIATURES

18. Miniature daffodils may be shown only in classes for miniatures. A miniature daffodil is any cultivar or species on the current ADS Approved List of Miniatures. Also, any named or numbered daffodil that appears graceful, with all its parts proportionately small, may be exhibited in Miniature classes and is eligible for all ADS awards, except only numbered seedlings shown by the originator are eligible for the ADS Miniature Rose Ribbon. The judges may decline to judge any exhibit containing an unapproved miniature that they consider too large for these classes.

SEEDLINGS

19. Blooms of seedlings may be exhibited in all classes for named cultivars, provided they are identified by a number and classification assigned by the originator. If an exhibitor is not the originator, the originator's name must be included on each label. The originator of a daffodil is the person who first flowers the bulb, regardless of who made the cross and/or first planted the seed. Only seedlings shown by the originator are eligible for the Rose or the Miniature Rose Ribbons.

MISCELLANEOUS

20. The Show Committee reserves the right to subdivide classes by cultivar or color code when there are three or more worthy exhibits of the same cultivar or color code and if at least three worthy exhibits are left in the class. Species may be subdivided by their botanical sections.

*On the Banks of the Rappahannock
A River Story*

Fredericksburg is located on the falls of the Rappahannock River. This area has played a significant role in history, dating well before the advent of the English in 1608, when it was home to several tribes of Native American people. The River was the gateway to the Piedmont region and served as a conduit for trade and travel, a source of food, and a site for recreation. The Rappahannock continues to define and enrich the Fredericksburg area of the river valley to the present day.

All entries will be judged referencing the section "Entering the Artistic Show" in The Garden Club of Virginia's Flower Shows Handbook revised 2002 (GCV-FSH). There is no workroom for artistic arranging. Arranging may be done in place but drop cloths required.

For questions concerning the artistic schedule, call Liz Thompson at 540-371-4366 or send an e-mail to llwwthompson@msn.com

GCV Restorations in Fredericksburg

The gardens and grounds of four properties in Fredericksburg have been restored as GCV projects. Pictures of these properties can be found online.

All Inter Club arrangements will be displayed on gray pedestals 42 inches high with 12-inch square tops, and be viewed against a dark green background 76 inches high. Arrangements not to exceed 24 inches in width. No accessories permitted. There is no workroom.

CLASS 199 A

Kenmore Plantation (first garden restoration 1929) - a formal garden facing the river. Early Georgian arrangement (GCV-FSH page 72).

CLASS 199 B

Mary Washington House (garden restoration 1968-1969) - an enclosed perennial and kitchen garden. Late Colonial arrangement (GCV-FSH pages 73-74).

CLASS 199 C

Mary Washington Monument (garden restoration 1937) - funded by contributions from women nationwide, this granite obelisk was dedicated by President Grover Cleveland in 1894 to honor Mary Ball Washington, mother of the first president. Traditional Line Mass arrangement (GCV-FSH page 81).

CLASS 199 D

Belmont (garden restoration 1992) - from the stone Summerhouse one can view the fall line of the Rappahannock, where bald eagles and heron fish daily. Creative Mass arrangement (GCV-FSH page 83).

Class 200

Fall Line - The Rappahannock River is navigable up to Fredericksburg, the demarcation between the Tidewater and the Piedmont regions of Virginia. At this point, numerous rocks in the river form rapids and barriers to navigation. Moribana style arrangement (GCV-FSH page 79). Arrangements will be displayed on a table*, separated by a yellow ribbon and should not exceed 24 inches in width. No height restriction. Limited to six entries.

Class 201

Indians - The river was a food source for the native people and early settlers. Native Americans living below the fall line relied on shellfish for cooking and serving utensils. Create a miniature arrangement in an oyster shell. To be displayed in an 8 inch by 8 inch black shadow box viewed at eye level (GCV-FSH page 77). No accessories. Limited to six entries.

Class 202

Flood - Numerous times throughout the years, the Rappahannock River has overrun its banks, flooding the low-lying areas nearby. Rappahannock is the Native American word for rapidly rising water. Underwater arrangement (GCV-FSH page 84). To be shown on gray pedestals 42 inches high with 12-inch square tops against a neutral background. Arrangements not to exceed 24 inches in width. No height restriction. Limited to six entries.

Class 203

Tobacco Warehouse - The river was a major trade and travel route during the 18th and 19th centuries. Tobacco was a cash crop of the colonies. Arrangements will be displayed on a table*, separated by a yellow ribbon and should not exceed 24 inches in width. No height restriction. Limited to six entries. Novice class. Open to GCV members who have never won a blue ribbon in a GCV show.

Class 204

Today the city dock serves as a steamboat wharf and is a popular site for fishing and boat launching. Free form arrangement (GCV-FSH page 81). Arrangements displayed on a table*, separated by yellow ribbons and should not exceed 24 inches in width. No height restriction. Limited to six entries.

* Note: All tables are 28.5 inches from the floor, 30 inches deep, covered with a white cloth, and placed in front of a neutral background.
